

Some Review: Questions and Answers.

I'd love to hear everyone integrate phrases you know into your interaction at class. If someone gives you something, say Go raibh maith agat instead of thank you. Greet each other with Dia dhuit/ dhaoibh instead of hi. Even if the rest of what you're saying is in English, fit in the Irish where you can. Mix it up :) Gradually you'll find that your conversations may be more Irish than English!
