

Verb Review

More Tense Practice

This is simple practice in forming the three tenses we have worked with recently, the future, conditional, and past habitual. Just translate the English sentences below into Irish. When in doubt, remember that the Irish version will always be in one of those three tenses.

1. He went to Mexico every winter.
2. He will go to Antarctica next year.
3. I used to break plates often.
4. I will drink rum for breakfast tomorrow morning.
5. I would be happy to see you.
6. I would eat a horse.
7. She used to eat spinach.
8. She would eat lemons.
9. They used to give their dog cake.
10. They used to say a lot of foolish things.
11. They will answer all your questions.
12. They would say many strange things.
13. We used to buy diapers every week.
14. We will come back tonight.
15. We will give money to the school.
16. We will listen to the next lecturer.
17. We would go to the theatre.
18. You (sibh) used to get sweets at the shop.
19. You (sibh) used to go to the cinema every weekend.
20. You (sibh) will learn new things from that book.
21. You (sibh) would get a present.
22. You (tú) came to class every week.
23. You (tú) used to wake early every morning.
24. You (tú) will get more money on Friday.
